of English, in the War of the Revolution, and that, although he received the same for the sole use of the surviving children of his grandmother, he retained the same and refused to pay it to these right in herrs, all of whom were his near blood-relations. The story of the recents is too clear for comment. What will the Democrats do about a case like this? Want will General Hancock 60? Will he, soldier as he is, fellowship a man who thus swindled blood-relations out of money due for services in the War of the Revolution? But the problem is now before the Democratic leaders, and the original papers are on file in Washington.

WHY ENGLISH WAS FORCED TO RESIGN. ALLOWED TO RESIGN HIS TREASURY CLERKSHIP BY A DEMOCRATIC SECRETARY OF WAR-A DE-

FRAUDER OF THE GOVERNMENT. CINCINNATI, Oct. 7 .- To-morrow The Gazette will publish the following dispatch from its Washington correspondent:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7. -The Revolutionary Pension case, as further investigation shows, was the cause of William H. English leaving the Treasury Department.

After Secretary Marcy became aware of the facis, as already set forth, he sent for English and demanded an explanation. English claimed to have settled, and endeavored to make it appear that the new phase of the case was only that of a lawyer seeking for money of which he expected the lion's share. The explanation was so utterly at variance with the information which the Secretary had that English's explanation was only held to make the matter worse. In a few weeks more the affair culminated by English being allowed to resign. The whole matter was kept in the confidential files, and not entered upon the usual record . books of the Department. This lement treatment of English is supposed to have been out of regard for his patron, Josse D. Bright.

Since the papers have been discovered and the character of the several branches of the case has become known, its first feature is seen to have been a defrauding of the Government to have been a defrancing of the Government out of the amount of the pension, since he had no more legal right to draw it than any other citizen of the land. It was also a clear case of obtaining money from the United States under false pretences, since he appeared in the Pension Office and before the Secretary of War as a legally appointed administ ator, which, according to the official report of the Commissioner of Pensions, he was not.

The trand upon members of his grandmother's family and their heirs, continuing in the case of one at least up to a fortnight since, is the other branch of the subject which the official papers already printed set forth with sufficient clearness.

These were equal to 979,00 per cent on the stock of the New-York Company and to 316,00 per cent on that of the Metropolitan Company. Mr. Worcester estimated the not caratags of the Manhattan Company for the year to be $1,080,000, and the deficiency to meet fixed charges for the same time to be $478.750.

The difference between this deficit and that published yesterday upon the authority of Mr. Field is said to arise in part from theinding in the payments for the year the accrued interest on the funded debts of the commanies at the beginning of the fiscal year. In this statement the interest payments for fifteen months were taken from the revenue for twelve mentles.

THE CANVASS AT LARGE.

EACH PARTY DETERMINED TO WIN. THE QUESTION OF THE DUTIES OF THE UNITED STATES INSPECTORS AT THE POLLS-WHAT JOHN I. DAVENPORT SAYS THEY WILL DO-ACTION OF TAMMANY AND INVING RALLS-LE PUBLICAN MEETINGS IN BROOKLYN-NEW-YORK MERCHANTS HADING A REPUBLICAN BANNER.

The news at Republican Headquarters yesterday indicated a fine majority in Ohio for Garfield. The business men in the neighborhood of Eighth-st, and Breadway raised a Republican banner last night, and expressed themselves as not wishing any change in the Government. The Chief Supervisor of Elections said the United States Inspectors would do their daty on election day, and would be sustained in it. Tammany Hall and Irving Hall took action on the matter.

MERCHANTS RAISING A BANNER. ACTION OF REPUBLICAN BUSINESS MEN WHO DO

NOT WANT A CHANGE. A Garfield and Arthur banner was raised acr Broadway at Eighth-st. last evening, under the direction of the Merchants' Republican Association, a campaign club recently formed by prominent merchants in that neighborhood. Before the banner was unfurled, mass-meeting was held in Science Hall in Eighthst. The room was densely crowded with an aulience that applauded heartily the telling points made by the speakers. The enthusiasm of the audience was unbounded. L. M. Bates, of the well-known drygoods firm of Bates, Reed & Cooley, was chosen to preside, the meeting having been called to order by Dr. I. I. Hayes, Assemblyman from the VIIth District. Among the prominent and business men who were invited to procure the banner are : Oliver S. Carrer, of Carter, Hawley & Co.; John Daniels & Son; Dodd, Mead & Co.; George A. Leavitt ; H. S. Armstrong, of Brooks Brothers; General Lloyd Aspin wall; Brokaw Brothers; E. P. Dutton & Co.; W. H. Johnson, of Belding Brothers & Co.; Charles Scribner's Sons, R. Worthington, Charles Jenkins, president of East River Bank: John Wiley's Sons, National Fowler & Weils, Sherman Schaus, Hodgman & Co., Biegelow & Main, A. D. Porter & Sons, Louis Fleischmann & Main, P. Miller, A. Middleton, Goodvear's Rubber Curler Company, Sypher & Co. Bangs & Co., James M. Sandford, E. D. Bassford, E. P. Souter, Luther F. Stevens, William Taylor, of the St. Denis Hotel, C. B. Waite, of the Brevoort House, and Charles M. Taintor. The reading of the names was accompanied by a continual ripple of applause, which occasionally broke into cheers. Dr. Hayes, in calling the meeting to order, referred to the importance of merchants as a class and their influence upon the material prosperity of a country. Having so large an interest in and so great an influence upon the mdustry of the country, it was well that this class should express its views as to the proper government of the country, Mr. Bates, after thanking the meeting for the enthusiastic way in which his name had been received, said, in part: I don't know much about pointles but on the question of dry goods I could talk for some time. I never made a political speech in my life, and no not know that I shall do so now. I have been in basiness in this city for tharry years, and have seen, during this thirty years there never way a time when the whole country. End, West, North and South, was in so prosperous a candition as we see it to-day. [Applaase,] Business men and merchants all over the country, whether Democrats, Greenbackers or Republicans, say say their prospects were never better. They tiell me that they are satisfied with a Republican Government, and that they don't care about a cames; only the treme, crats say they have been out a long time and would like E. P. Souter, Luther F. Stevens, William Taylor, that they are satisfied with a Republican Government, and that they don't care about a came of only the terms, crats say they have been out a long time and would like to see themselves back again (Lauchter.) Otherwise they were satisfied. Now, for me I do not see that we want any change. Every laboring man in the country can have work now, as suon waces as will not only provide for himself and family but also silow him to put something by. I have in my comp oy 400 or 500 persons; and one significant fact is that out of 80 who work in the packing room, and who are mostly Irpan Catholies, 35 will march in the Grant procession next Monday mrot. [Loud a splause.] They say they are going to vote for Garfield and Arthur, (Cheers.) I Hauched when I heard of this, because I had no idea that any of them would take such a course. I think it is a good onest.

Dr. Haves then made another short speech, and Dr. Haves then made another short speech, and was followed by G. W. Scoffeid.

UNITED STATES ELECTION INSPECTORS. WHAT MR. DAVENPORT HAS TO SAY ABOUT THE THREATS OF TAMMANY-HIS DIRECTIONS TO THE UNITED STATES OFFICERS-ACTION OF TAMMANY

AND IRVING HALLS. The Chief Supervisor of Elections, John I. Davenport, was found in his office in the Post Office asked for his opinion of John Kelly's advice to the holders of 1868 papers to resist physically any attempt to take the documents from them by the United States authorities. He replied that he did not anticipate any trouble, because he thought wiser counsel would prevail. It was well, however, that all persons should understand that the laws would be enforced to the last letter. In order that the supervisors might thoroughly understand their duties, and also that they would be fully protected in discharging them, Mr. Davenport said he had issued a circular, the substance of which is as follows:

According to the Revised Statutes of the United States, any one interfering in any way with the discharge of the inspectors' duties is liable to instant arrest without process, and to punishment by imprisonment for not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than $3,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and the costs of prosecution. The police are required to assist the supervisors, and it is criminal in them to neglect or refuse to furnish assistance. The supervisors are also instructed to receive no instructions from any political organizations, but only from the Chief Supervisor or one of his aids. The letter closes by stating that the laws of the United States relating to elections will be enforced by force, if necessary. The supervisors are directed not to be intimidated.

Thomas Finley, an Inspector of Election for the Seventeenth Election District of the XVIIIth Assembly District, was arrested yesterday by United States Deputy Marshais Mickle and Dubert, on the complaint of David W. Ives, of No. 84 Lexington-ave., who is a Federal Supervisor of Elections at the same registration place. Ives charges that Tuesday last Finley obstructed him in the discharge of his duties by endeavoring to prevent him asking questions relating to naturalirevent him asking questions relating to haturalization, and by instructing persons who came to register, to whom the questions were addressed, not to answer them. Finley was also charged with threatening personal violence to Ives.

The accused man was taken before answer them. Finley was also charged with threatening personal violence to Ives. The accused man was taken before United States Commissioner Denel yesierday. He was represented by General Wingate, while Assistant District Attorney Weatherbee appeared for the Government. From the evidence, it appeared that the from ble arose about questions put to a man who held 1868 naturalization papers. The case was not fully investigated, but the Commissioner remarked on the gravity of the charge, and, pending in their examination, fixed the bail at $2,500. Subsequently the accused man was permitted to go at liberty, in the custody of his counsel, until to-day, whon he will furnish the requisite bail. Another arrest arising out of Tuesday's registration was that of John H. Platt, a policeman, who was on duty at the Third Election District of the HId Assembly District. Charles I. Jackson, a Federal Supervisor, was the complainant, and the warrant was issued by Mr. Davenport as United States Commissioner. Platt appeared before the Commissioner yesterday in uniform. Jackson enarged that the officer had interfered with him in the discharge of his duty by refusing to allow him to pass freely in and out of the registration booth. Platt was allowed his liberty on his own recognizance that he would appear to-day for further examination.

The General Committee of Tammany Hall met

The General Committee of Tammany Hall met last evening in the wigwam in Fourteenth-st, and, as it was generally understood the scalp of John I. Davenport was to be the subject that would mainly occupy the attention of the braves for the evening, there was an unusually large attendance. Henry D. Purroy presided, and the bulky form of John Kelly filed a chair in the front row. The committee first decided that the nominating conventions should be held at the following dates: The City and County Convention, October 9; the Con-gressional nomination, October 13; the Assembly nominations, October 14; and for Aldermen, Octo-or pecketbook, and declares that a man really has the same right to protest the certificate that he has to guard his watch or pocketbook; but the lawyers advise against a fight at the place of registration. They suggest log dark a fight at the place of registration. They suggest instead that persons aggrisved by the seizure of their naturalization certificates should apply to one of the United States Commissioners for a warrant of arrest against the alleged offending supervisor. They were also of the opinion that a petition should be presented to Judge Blatchford asking that he immelf should open court on election day, in order that he may be enabled to exercise a personal supervision in the matter.

A committee consisting of Francis B. Spinola, Henry L. Chaton, Wulliam A. Boyd, Samuel G. Couriney and Menza Defendorf was appointed to draft a letter calling his attention to John I. Davenjort in general.

It was decided to have all the Democratic Supervisors and Inspectors of Election come together in emort in general.

It was decided to have all the Democratic Supervisors and Inspectors of Election come together in Tammany Hall sunday afternoon and hear a sermon on their duties during registration and election from learned coursel.

Alderman Kirk made application before Justice Patterson, at the Iombs Poince Court vesterday, for a warrant against a United States Supervisor of Elections for the larceny of naturalization papers of 1868, seized within the past two days. Justice Patterson refused to grant the warrant on the ground that the case belonged to the United States Court. Allerman Perley, who was present, observed that the question would finally resolve itself into a contest between the State and the United States, and Alderman Kirk added that it would come to that eventually. This point, the Justice said, had once been settled by a war.

The Executive Committee of the Irving Hall Democracy met at Irving Hall last night, with Financel B. Hart in the chair. John Fox introduced a resolution directing that a committee of five should be appointed to see that the Democratic election supervisors to which the organization is entitled by law were appointed; and also to look after a izens holding 1868 papers, so that their papers should not be taken from them, and that they should not be mposed upon by the arbitrary acts of the Republican supervisors. The chair appointed a time committee of the Republican supervisors. The clair appointed a this committee John McKeen, Nelson J. Waterbury, Charles W. Brooke, Francis A. Ranson and Charles H. Truax.

A FIRST-CLASS DEMOCRATIC FUNERAL. GENERAL M'QUADE WARNS A FRIEND OF WHAT HE

MAY EXPECT IN INDIANA. General James McQuade, the well-known Demo erat, is now in Indiana, working for the candidates of his party. A story told at his expense excited much amusement among the Republican members of the Stock Exchange Wednesday; it was widely circulated in Wall-st. offices, and everywhere was heard with hearty laughter. It is said that the General had occasion a day or two ago to send two dispatches to friends in this city-one to a lawyer in regard to business connected with his visit to Indiana, and the other to a political friend. By some accident the dispatches were exchanged, the lawyer receiving the one intended for the political friend. The lawyer puzzled long over the cabalistic message, but even after recourse to cipher keys was obliged to lay it aside for future explanation. During the day the person who had received the second dispatch visited the lawyer's office, and banding him the dispatch, remarked snavely, "I think this was intended for you." The lawyer read it carefully, and then turning to his visitor, replied Then this one must have been meant for you. are both satisfied." The other thea read the following message from his friend in Indiana:

DEMOCRATIC RUFFIANISM. ATTEMPT TO BREAK UP A REPUBLICAN MEETING

"Prepare for a first-class funeral,"

IN WESTCHESTER, The town of Westchester contains the worst lements of the Democratic party. On Tuesday even ng, while the Republicans were holding a meeting, William Watson, who held the position of Warden o Ludiow Street Jail at the time Red Leary made his escape entered the hall, intruded himself upon the platform, and began to use off-us ve and obscene language to the speaker in the presence of a number of ladies. He was requested to cease, but he refused to do so, and upon an attempt being made to remove him, his Democratic friends cheered him and came to his assistance and declared that he should not be put down. He was, however, got out the hali for about fifteen minutes, when he reentered, and sat down at the rear of the ball, and began to repeat his expressions, when he was again requested to leave the ball. He Building yesterday by a Tribune reporter, and was struck the person who had ordered him to keep quiet or out. Watson's Democratic friends, led on by William Corrigan. Michael Fitzgerald, Lewis Hendricks, Michael Gleason and others, numberiar about fifty, got between Watson and the door, and pushed hennelyes forward toward the platform, where Gleason, standing up, brandished a club and torentened to strike any one who should attempt to remove Watson from the hall.

The meeting was thus interrupted for about half an hour; there being no police or other officials disposed to put a stop to the lawless conduct of the intraders. The speakers on the eccasion were Charles A. L. Goldie and Cornelius Donovan, who finally concluded their remarks. The meeting was one of the largest Republican gatherings ever known in the town.

TALK WITH CHAUNCEY I. FILLEY.

Channey I. Filley, of the Republican National Committee, was in this city recently. He came directly from Indiana, and he stated that the canvass in that State was very satisfactory to the Republicans. Of course, he admitted, Indiana bas been a Democratic State, and should it go Republican now, even by a piurality, it would be a great gain; but he thought a fair election would un-doubtedly show a good Republican impority. The Democrats are using great sums of money, he said, and helding still greater sums in reserve for elec-tion day, while the State is overrun almost with Democrats from Kentucky and other Southern States. In the face of such fraint and corruption, the Republicans are not disposed to make any great claims on the vote of the state. Mr. Filley says there is no doubt of a good working Republican majority in Ohio.

UNDUE HASTE IN NATURALIZATION.

Last week THE TRIBUNE pointed out the need of greater care in granting citizenship, and the Judges engaged in this work have since performed their duties with more regard to the exact requirements of the law. But on Monday there was such a rush for naturalization papers in the Superior Court, where Judge Freedman was sitting, that the applicants were examined before the Judge in only a lew instances, and the examination of witnesses was so brief as sometimes to be confined to a single question. As the last days for registration draw near; the crowd of applicants for naturalization is sure to i-cerease, and if they are to be treated as Judge Freedman treated those who came before him on Monday, there may be many fraudulent voters at the election. voters at the election.

RESULTS OF DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS. An incident indicative of the apprehension felt generally by capitalists and business men of the depression which would follow the Presidential election if the Democrats should be successful. occurred the other morning in the office of Prince & Whitely, the well-known brokers. A customer, who had just given an order for a block of stock at 75, said, "If Garfield is elected that stock will be worth 98 immediately." "But," said a bystander, "what will be the effect if Hancock is elected?" "Oh," said the speculator, as a shade passed over his face, "then it will assuredly go 10 below the present figure."

RAILWAY EMPLOYES FOR GARFIELD.

A ratification meeting was held last evening in Chickering Hall, under the auspices of the Railway Employes' Garfield and Arthur Central Campaign Club. The attendance was large, and in the audience were many fashionably dressed women. A. J. Dittenhoefer presided. In his opening remarks he said that for four years the men of the Solid South had attempted on the battlefield to bring about a a change. Failing by that method, they now propose to use ballots instead of bullets, and they ask the loyal North to assist them in securing their object. Then the Solid South was beaten, and now. unless all the signs are deceptive, it will be beaten again; this time by the good sense of the North The gentleman whom he introduced, he said, would explain why the South was to be beaten.

R. Slockett Matthews, of Baltimore, was then presented, and was received with much warmth, He spoke for two hours, and was frequently interrupted with applause. He divided his address into three heads. The first related to the personality of the candidates for the Presidency, and the question to be decided, he said, was which of the two is filter by reason of training, expensive and his ble's work, to discharge the functions of the high office. The second part of his address related to the antecedents and character of the opposing parties, and the third to the consequences likely to follow the success of either party.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

MISUNLERSTANDING ABOUT A LEASE-CHEERING INFORMATION FROM OHIO-GANGS OF REPEAT-ERS ON THEIR WAY FROM THIS CITY TO THE

Owing to a slight misunderstanding in regard to the lease of the rooms occupied by the Republican National Committee in Fifth-ave., a motion has been made in the Common Pleas Court to dispossess it. The persons who sub-let the house to the National Committee, it seems, had no right to let it except for purposes of a dwelling-house, and the owner has sought redress in the courts. The whole matter, however, will probably be amicably arranged, or the Committee will secure rooms in the adjoining house, which has been proffered. Among the callers at the Republican National Headquarters Wednesday night was Senator Baidwin, of Michigan, who expressed himself well pleased with the prospects in his State. The demand for documents and campaign literature continues to increase rather than diminish. The folswing letter was received by Chairman Jewell vesterday from T. J. McLain, UnitedStates Consul at Nassau, who has been speaking in Ohio, his native State, for some time :

native State, for some time:

Ohio Remublicana are certainly making a most thorough and energetic canvass—ahead of anything I have seen in this State these many years. The Resublican majority for Governor Foster hast year was 17,000, an exceptionally large one for us, somewhat owing to the fretthat many hard-money Democrats would not support Ewing on account of his greenhack fereises, if therefore Ohio Republicans can only hold their own titles year they will still have a handsome analority. There may be some falling off in Chemmat, where fraudallent votage is comparatively easy, and where the situm of a large city furnish opportunities to gather in a purchasoble vote; but as the Independent German vote is with us in that city, we hope for nearly last year's a purchasible vote; but as the Independent German vote is with as in that city, we hope for nearly last year's majority in Hamilton County. The backbone best of Democratic counties across the centre of the State will probably increase their majorities by brinning out those disaffected Democrats who went back on Ewing last year. To offset any failing off in these two quarters we have to rely on the case on counties and on the Wastern Reserve, and we shall not be disappointed in good gar is here. The indications are that the castern and southeastern counties will increase their Republican majorities over those of last year by about 2,000, while the Western Reserve will increase its in livity from 3,006 to 5,000. We thus feel prefty well fortified against probably increased Democratic majorities in Hamilton and the Democratic counties.

he Democratic countles. In view of these things, I do not think I hazard anything in predicting that our majority on the State ticket will not go below 15,000, and it may reach 20,000 or over. Fo guard against contingencies, and especially against the corrupt use of Democratic money, the Republicans will relax no effort until the votes are cast and counted. As an indication of the means taken by the Democrats to carry Indiana, the following letter from a manufacturer in Philadelphia is instructive:

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4, 1880. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4, 1880.

To the Hon, B. W. Manierre.

Dear Sir: I hereos make a statement of facts to you. I am a manufacturer and sell my goods larsely in this market, and for the last six years have employed two brothers. For the last two days I have had but one of them, but I thought to-morrow I might require both, and asking the one where his brother was, he replied to me as follows: "Thomas went to Indiana last might (Sunday 3) with four others, and several others have gone before, and they will come nome election hight. They wanted me to go but I would not, and I told them I would rather take my pass and so to New-York on the Bound Brook Road, which I did do and went Saturday night and came back last nucht (Sunday). Now I know both these brothers are positive Irish Democrats. They are good, reliable men, and I lawe their names and numbers. Nice thing for the railroads to do. The Republican party has got to meet the devil, sure, and he must be met and conquered.

A gentleman familiar with the politics of this To the Hon. B. W. MANIERRE.

A gentleman familiar with the politics of this city said in the National Committee Rooms last night that he had evidence that 100 Democrats had gone from his Assembly District to Indiana and Ohio within the last three days. The same report is received from other parts of the city. It is believed that many skilled Democratic reneaters have gone from this city to the West to ply their vocation at the polls next Tuesday.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE PARADE.

General Aspinwall and a corps of assistants were occupied all day and until a late hour last night in completing arrangements for the great Republican parade Monday night. Additional reports were eceived yesterday from organizations representing 3,600 men. It is now believed that there will be 35,000 men in line, and if all the organiza tions causide of the city take part, that have reperted, the number will bargely exceed 35,000, all of whom will be actual voters, as well as torchbearers.

The greatest care is being taken in the arrange ments to prevent any trouble or delay in the forma-tion of the column, and unless some of the organi-zations arrive too late to take the positions as-sumed them, all will proceed the clockwork. The arrangements are in the hands of skilled army officers who have been accustomed to handing large toolies who have been accustomed to handling large bonics of troops. It was determined yesterday to place the third division under the command of General the theri division under the command of General E. F. Winslow, who had charge of the cavalry corps in Sherman's army. There will be at least therty bands of music in the column, and several thousand mounted cavalrymen besides the artillery horses and the mounted officers. The first division will form in and around Washington Square, the second division between Eleventh and Sevenicenth-sta., and the third division from Eighteenth to Twenty-third-sts. The first division will start from Washington Square and the other divisions will fall in line. The march will be up Fifth-ave, to Twenty-third-sts, thomes and the other divisions will fall in line. The march will be up Fifth-ave, to Twenty-third-st, thence up Madison-ave, to Fifty-seventh-st, and down Fifth-ave, in front of the reviewing stand by the Worth monument, and thence down Fifth-ave, to the various side streets assigned for disbanding. The column will extend from curb to curb.

MEETING IN DR. FULTON'S CHURCH. The Rev. Dr. Justin D. Fulton delivered a political address in the Centennial Baptist Church, lately the Brooklyn Rink, last evening. The large building was completely filled with people at half-past 7 o'clock, and at 8, when the speaking began, the aisles were crowded and standing room was scarce.

Ex-Governor Jewell was among those present. Albert Daggett called the meeting to order and the Rev. Dr. Hutchinson was called to the chair, Dr. Hutchinson made a speech full of reminiscences of the old Abolition struggles. Then the Continental Glee Club sang and the Rev. Mr. Dickson offered a prayer, after which the Rev. Dr. Fulton was introprayer, after which the flev. In Fillian was little duced and made an address lasting over two hours. He reviewed the issues of the campaign, giving particular attention to the tariff question and the dangers which would result should the Solid South be allowed to obtain control of the Government. The had been some objection raised by certain numbers of Dr. Fulton's congregation to the holdng of a political meeting in the church, to be ad-iressed by the pastor, and in referring to this Dr.

dressed by the pastor, and in referring to this Dr. Fuller said:

I am here in a political meeting as a minister. If I can stand behind the pulpit on Sunday and ted people how to do right in certain respects, and cannot stand here during the week and tell them how to do right in other espects, Ifan I am ready to leave off preaching and to go into another kind of business. I lee in to my duty to do all the good I can for my own people and all other people, and that is the reason I am here before you tonight, carnesity beseeding you to support the Readbacan party this rall; because I feel that in delag that you will so both yourselves and your country good. On will go both yourselves and your country god. On Sunday I tell you how you may save your sonls. To-nent I tell you how you may save your property, your country, ann your beat interests.

WALKER BLAINE IN BROOKLYN.

A very large meeting was held last evening at the Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, under the auspices of the Brooklyn Young Republican Club. The audience was composed principally of young Among those present was Henry Ward Beecher, Henry B. Beecher presided. The Rev. George C. Miln made a short address and then Walker Blaine, son of Senator Blaine, was then introduced. He was received with enthusiastic cheering. Mr. Blaine is a young man of medium height and prepossessing appearance. His striking leatures, pleasant delivery and unaffected manner quickly secured for bim the favor of his audience. He was listened to with a sustained interest throughout, and was frequently interrupted by appliance.

Mr. Blaine said that the nullification issue is involved in this campaign, as the Democratic party is attempting to milifly the election law; he condemned the Democratic party for its attitude on the taril question, and for the suppression of a free ballot in the South.

REPUBLICAN BANNERS IN BROOKLYN.

The Republican banners in Fulton-st., Brookyn, are much more tasteful and attractive than the D-mocratic. The Young Men's Central Garfield and Arthur Club, at No. 567 Fulton-et., has a very fine banher with a full length portrait of Lincoln between the the two candidates, and emblematic devices on each de. The Eleventh Ward Association, a little way be-and, also has a handsome banner.

GOOD NEWS FROM NIAGARA COUNTY. Information received in this city from Niagara County is very encouraging. The Republicans are exruest and enthusiastic, and are working with all their energy for success, while the Democrats are not united and hopeful. In the little town of Middleport—a town of only 800 people-there is a mounted company of no less than eighty Wideawakes; and in the same place sixteen Democrats who do not favor a "change," say that they will your for Garfield. Middleport Republicans are very will-vote for Garileid. Middleport Republicans are very prend of these facts and say that it will be hard for any town in the State of equal size to rival their achievements. In Johnson's Crock a short time ago, the largest gathering ever got together in the place as embled at a Republican mass-meeting, which was addressed by Judge Brundage. Well informed politicians say that the Republicans will carry the county for Garileid by 500 majority, although it gave Tilden 315 majority in 1876.

Washington, Oct. 7.—A private letter received in this city from an eminent lawyer and ex-Congressman, who has been on the stump for a few weeks past in Indiana and Ohio, contains an interesting statement. It says that in the part of Ohio where the writer had been for several days, the Democrats appeared to be remarkably well supplied with funds. From the intimations which he received from several sources, as well as from facts which had commander his own observation, he was satisfied that a part of their money was supplied by English Freetraders, who naturally enough are anxions for the success of the party that is pledged to a reduction of the tariff to a virtual free trade basis, even if it reduces the wages of every workingman in America, as it certainly will.
